

DELHI PUBLIC SCHOOL NEWTOWN

SESSION 2020-2021

MONDAY TEST (ONLINE)

CLASS: IX
SUBJECT: HOME SCIENCE

FULL MARKS: 40
DATE: 26.11.20

Answer all questions from Part I and Part II.

This paper contains 1 printed page.

The intended marks for questions or parts of questions are given in brackets [].

PART I (10 Marks)

[1X10=10]

1. The time period from conception to birth is called_____.
2. _____ prefer to wear formal looking clothes.
3. The first phase of prenatal development is called_____.
4. The word textile means_____.
5. The period lasts from the beginning of the third week to the end of the eighth week is called_____.
6. _____ fibres are measured in centimetres.
7. The weaving of fabric mechanically with the help of electricity is called_____
_____.
8. _____ can feel the mother's heartbeat.
9. _____ yarn run crosswise of fabric of filling yarns.
10. A significant point in development is called _____

PART II (20 Marks)

[2x10=20]

1. Choice of clothes varies. Justify.
2. Why does the baby's vision is blurry and it can see only a few inches far.
3. What is motor development?
4. Write short note on cognitive development.
5. Mention the five primary properties of fibre.
6. Differentiate between natural and man-made fibres.
7. Mention two points of essentials in learning motor skills.
8. How does good parenting promote social behaviour of the children?
9. Based on properties differentiate cotton and linen fibres.
10. Jealousy makes the child violent towards others. Justify.

PART III (10 Marks)

[5x2=10]

1. What is the difference between Gross motor and Fine motor development? Give two examples of each.
2. Draw the longitudinal and cross section of cotton fibre and label them. Describe convolution, lumen and sap.