

CLASS: X
SUBJECT: ENGLISH PAPER II

FULL MARKS: 40
DATE: 24.06.2024

- All questions are compulsory.
- The paper consists of two printed pages.

SECTION A (MULTIPLE CHOICE QUESTIONS)

Question 1.

Choose the correct answers to the questions from the given options. (Do not copy the questions) [5]

- i) What did the narrator say when he saw the proof of the photograph? (With the Photographer)
- a) He complimented the photographer.
 - b) He asked if it was him.
 - c) He said that it was perfect.
 - d) He said that it could have been better.
- ii) Choose the option that lists the sequence of events in the correct order: (With the Photographer)
1. The photographer asks the author to open and then close his mouth.
 2. The photographer asks the author to roll his eyes under the eyelids.
 3. The photographer criticizes the author's ears and asks him to droop them a little more.
 4. The photographer twists the author's head sideways and looks at it.
- a) 4, 1, 3, 2
 - b) 4, 3, 2, 1
 - c) 3, 2, 1, 4
 - d) 2, 3, 4, 1
- iii) Which of the following did Artemidorus want Julius Caesar to read?
- a) a newspaper
 - b) a holy book
 - c) a schedule
 - d) an old manuscript
- iv) Select the option that shows the correct relationship between statements (1) and (2).
1. Popilius wished Cassius good luck and success in his 'enterprise' that day.
 2. Cassius got tensed as he thought that their conspiracy against Caesar was discovered.
- a) 1 is an example of 2
 - b) 1 is the cause for 2
 - c) 1 is a contradiction of 2
 - d) 1 is independent of 2
- v) Name the poet of Haunted Houses.
- a) Robert Frost
 - b) Harris William Longfellow
 - c) Stephen Leacock
 - d) Henry Wadsworth Longfellow

SECTION B (DRAMA)

Question 2.

Read the extract below and answer the questions that follow:

*Caesar: I could be well mov'd, if I were as you;
If I could pray to move, prayers would move me...*

- i) Where does the scene take place? To what does Caesar compare himself in this context? [2]
- ii) Apart from Metellus Cimber, who else had requested Caesar for the enfranchisement for Publius Cimber just before the extract? Who strikes Caesar first? [2]
- iii) What did Antony ask his servant to convey to Brutus? What was Brutus' reply to him? [3]
- iv) To which animal did Antony compare Caesar? How were the conspirators described by Antony in this context? Why do you think Cassius did not want Antony to speak at Caesar's funeral? [3]
- v) Mention one quality which Caesar boasts about himself as mentioned in the scene. What information did Trebonius share about Antony soon after Caesar was assassinated? Why didn't Antony want Octavius to enter Rome immediately? [3]

SECTION C (SHORT STORIES)

Question 3.

Read the extract and answer the questions that follow:

I sat down in a beam of sunlight filtered through a sheet of factory cotton hung against a frosted skylight. The photographer rolled a machine into the middle of the room and crawled into in from behind.

- i) Why did the narrator want his photograph to be taken? What was the age of the narrator? [3]
- ii) What was the photographer frantically looking for after coming out of the machine? What was the first comment that the photographer made about the narrator's face? How did the narrator react to the comment? [3]
- iii) Why was the photographer unable to show the picture to the narrator immediately after he clicked it? When did he ask the narrator to see the proof of the photograph? Why was the narrator disappointed after looking at it? [3]
- iv) How could the photographer put in new eyebrows? What opinion about the photographer do you form after reading the story? [2]

SECTION D (POETRY)

Question 4.

Read the extract below and answer the questions that follow:

*All houses wherein men have lived and died
Are haunted houses. Through the open doors
The harmless phantoms on their errands glide...*

- i) According to the poet, which houses can be considered as 'haunted'? What is meant by 'phantoms'? Why are the 'phantoms' considered to be 'harmless'? [3]
- ii) What is the difference between the perception of the speaker and the stranger at the fireside? Where does the speaker meet the 'phantoms'? [3]
- iii) To what are the inoffensive 'phantoms' in the illuminated hall compared? Where does the moon throw the floating bridge of light from? Describe the floor of the bridge that descends from the world of spirits to connect with our world. [3]
- iv) If you had to give this poem, an alternative title, what would you call it? Give reasons for your answer. [2]