Question 4

Read the excerpt and answer the questions that follow:

The mutiny in Kanpur was partly due to planning and coordination among sepoy lines. After refusing to accept new cartridges the 7th Awadh Irregular Cavalry wrote to the 48th Native Infantry indicating they had acted for the faith. People were planning and talking about the rebellion. Panchayats were a nightly occurrence in Kanpur sepoy lines, suggesting collective decisions were made. The sepoys were the makers of their own rebellion. [Source-NCERT theme III.]
